Effective Presentations: Overcoming 4 Common Challenges

In-Person

This free workshop focuses on how to overcome common challenges that hold us back, and what it takes to become more comfortable and confident in speaking in front of any group.

What You'll Learn

Presenting to any audience is a quick, efficient way to market ourselves, a business, or a cause. In this workshop, you'll learn how to conquer these 4 common challenges: 1) Appearing nervous in front of a crowd 2) Presenting with lack of energy 3) Providing too much information 4) Rejecting speaking opportunities due to fear of failure.

Why you want to learn it

Learning ways to overcome these 4 challenges will help elevate your success. An accomplished presentation is what will differentiate you from your competitors.

How it will help you

Strong presentation skills will enable you to drive your message home. Whether your goal is to market, to influence, or to motivate. An effective presentation is a critical component for reaching your goal. You'll see measurable gains in communication skills, personal and corporate image, and ultimately, your bottom line.
