

Leadership Training

Executive Readiness Experience

In-Person

Executive Readiness Experience Overview: This highly interactive, multi-dimensional development experience is designed for high-potential future executive leaders. The Executive Readiness Experience cohort will better equip future executive leaders with the skills and mindset needed to succeed on the executive team.

What You'll Learn

This year long, highly interactive cohort will experience seven phases of learning and personal one-on-one coaching between sessions. The experience starts with a kick-off meeting including participants and sponsors. Pre-cohort work will include a 360 assessment, 360 debrief and review session and creating a personal development plan.
The every other month program phases are focused on the following.
Phase One: Senior Leadership Presence
Phase Two: Thinking Strategically
Phase Three: Building an Accountable Culture
Phase Four: Empowering Others
Phase Five: Partnering for Growth
Phase Six: Developing Business
Phase Seven: Leading with Impact
Phase Eight: Executive Readiness Reports and Celebration

Why you want to learn it

This year-long interactive approach to Leadership Readiness will empower your people to expand their critical thinking, improve their decision-making, and broaden their world view. The experience will be made even more powerful as thoughtful executives commitment to enrolling a diverse group of leaders.

How it will help you

We trust you will agree that C-Suite Executives, have no greater responsibility than to prepare the next generation of senior leaders. Our communities are counting on C-Suite Executives to not take that responsibility lightly. Unlock your human potential, fine-tune operational excellence, and position your company for future growth.