Leadership Training

Step Up to Leadership

Live Online

This seminar helps new leaders start off on the right foot, while seasoned leaders learn to transform from managing to leading optimum performance. Program Format: 2 Session Seminar - 3-hour workshops.

What You’ll Learn

You will learn how to set performance goals, determine the results needed from each team member, and effective delegate activities necessary to achieve those results. Learn how to uncover opportunities for creating stretch goals that bring out the leadership potential in yourself and your team members. Identify your leadership style and the impact of that style on your team.

Why you want to learn it

Any supervisor or manager who wants to increase productivity, boost morale, and improve quality will want to take this course. You’ll learn to give feedback in ways that others are receptive and eager to grow. Gaining an understanding of the 12 qualities of outstanding leaders, you’ll be able to build relationships of mutual trust and respect and resolve conflicts before they affect the whole team.

How it will help you

This seminar unveils five drivers formalized at Dale Carnegie that help you to become the type of leader who moves teams forward. Leave with practical tools and techniques for being a superstar leader. You'll develop high-energy team that gets results because you'll know how to lead them, not just manage them.