

Leadership

How to Hire, Inspire, and Retain Great Talent

En personne

The battle for talent is ON and it is a leader's job to win it. If the people inside an organization are truly its' greatest asset, how are you setting yourself apart from your competition? Dale Carnegie Training has over 100 years of experience supporting leaders in creating business cultures that top talent wants to be a part of – and stay a part of.

Ce que vous apprendrez

This leadership event is designed to identify and explore the top three keys to leadership today. You'll learn how to differentiate yourself from your competition in the battle for talent and discover what you need to do to keep that talent engaged.

Pourquoi vous voulez l'apprendre

Turnover costs organizations over 200% annually. We simply cannot afford to not understand how to hire, inspire, and retain great talent.

Comment cela va vous aider

You will walk away with an action plan that gets you thinking from the talent point of view so that you can design an engaged and inspired workplace.