

Leadership

Take Command of the New Year

En personne

This workshop will equip you with tools to effectively plan out your vision, along with managing the stress and anxiety that comes with entering uncharted territory.

Ce que vous apprendrez

How to: Create an action plan for your vision Identify the barriers to between where you are and where you want to be Engage and motivate those around you Be intentional and consistent with your effort

Pourquoi vous voulez l'apprendre

When we want to reach a new destination, we have to chart a new path. Recognizing where we are helps us to prepare for where we are going. Set yourself up for success in the new year with attainable goals that stretch your comfort zone to your fullest potential

Comment cela va vous aider

Take command of your vision for the new year by taking specific steps toward your goals, better controlling your anxiety, and adding more value to your organization.